

PAULETTE SAVOY

Wake-Robin Club Member Since: 1985

Golfing since: 1983

What positions have you held in the Club? Currently, I am the president. I have been corresponding secretary, tournament director, and recording secretary.

Occupation or, if retired, previous occupation? I retired early from the D.C. Department of Recreation and Parks in 1994 after 28yrs. I am currently a real estate agent with Long & Foster.

Children/Spouse? One daughter, Terri Parrilla, and four grown stepchildren: Kim Bennett, Allison Savoy-Logan, Joseph Barbour and Jacquin White.

What is important in your life right now? Representing the Wake-Robin Golf Club well!

Do you have any hidden talents? I am a good table tennis player.

What is the hardest thing you've ever done? Put on ski boots! J

Name 2 things you are very good at. I am very good at finding humor in almost everything and the ability to speak in a way and tone that allows me to say almost anything to anybody.

What is your pet peeve in golf? My pet peeve in golf is slow play.

Where was your best vacation ever? My best vacation ever was a trip to Italy that included a day in Venice.

What has been your greatest achievement? My greatest achievement has been raising a responsible daughter as a single parent.

What are you passionate about? The Redskins!

What is your most valued possession and why? My most valuable possession is my sense of humor because it allows me to have a great outlook on life.

What exotic countries have you visited? Haiti.